

I've been told the current FM translators may be jeopardized if new LPFM stations take priority. I listen to a commercial free nationwide radio group called KLOVE. I travel across country often and pick them up wherever I go in Continental U.S. I listen to local KLOVE 100.1 in the San Diego CA. Please don't sacrifice FM translator service while considering LPFM stations.